This beautifully illustrated volume examines the parts of us that twist and turn our thoughts into questions and doubts about ourselves. This is a guide through the messy thoughts we have from the day to day, showing us how to be kinder to ourselves and to others as we untangle their paths to a place of self-acceptance and understanding. With vibrant full-color illustrations by Jessa Orr and Greg McGoon's quirky rhymes, "The Tanglelows" is sure to open up wonderful conversations and meaningful explorations for years to come.
