

Photos of People at the March on Washington August 28, 1963

D. Dean Givens and T.M. Givens

Photographs of people at the March on Washington, August 28, 1963. Taken by D. Dean Givens, these photographs focus on the people gathering at the Capitol and on the National Mall in preparation for the Civil Rights March. This beautiful volume features commentary and observations from artist TM Givens, the photographer's son.

About the author

T.M. Givens has exhibited in a variety of media, with sculpture at the Ankrum Gallery, the Los Angeles County Museum of Art, Chaffey College, and with drawings and paintings in a variety of galleries in Sacramento. The Rancho Santa Ana Botanic Garden exhibited his drawings in a changing exhibition titled "Terry Givens: 100 Garden Views," and in 2019, Pelekinesis released a 4-book series of these Garden Prayers.

He has contributed many drawings to organizations, individuals, and businesses in and around Claremont. A collection of his political cartoons appear in the book Diary of a Mad House-Husband. In addition, he has curated exhibitions at the Rex Wignall Gallery in Ontario and the Riverside Art Museum. He taught art and photography in a variety of local elementary and secondary schools, as well as at local universities and colleges.

Terry and Carolyne Givens live in Upland.
